Dear

Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000

Thank you for your recent request for information. Your request has been considered under the above Act. You have requested the following information.

I am writing to you today to make a Request under the Freedom Of Information Act (2000). The information that I request are all parameters set by the Coventry City Council to protect its citizens during an apocalyptic situation. This ranges from, initial response and city lockdown to evacuation strategies. I would like to receive this information via electronic copies of information.

Response:

Coventry City Council's emergency planning procedures ensure that the City is prepared for any sort of emergency, including apocalyptic situations. Emergency planning procedures are produced for the Council, in conjunction with our partners and will be invoked for any emergency to protect all individuals living, working or visiting Coventry.

Please see link below which is provided on the City Council's website:

http://www.coventry.gov.uk/info/41/community_and_living/355/major_emergencies

The City Council works jointly with Solihull and Warwickshire Councils in all areas of Emergency planning, if you require more information about, personal resilience and general preparedness in the sub-region please visit www.cswprepared.org.uk

You are free to use this information for your own purposes. If you wish to use the information for other purposes, you will need to contact us. If you are unhappy with the outcome or handling of your request you should write to us within 40 working days of the date of this letter:
