Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Act 2000

Thank you for requesting information about Penalty Charge Notices in St Johns Street which the Council received on 27th March 2013. Your request has been considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You have requested the following information;

The total number of Penalty Charge Notices issued in St Johns Street since the implementation of parking meters.

The total number of Penalty Charge Numbers issued is 274.

Please note that most of the information that you request is owned by the Coventry City Council and subject to copyright protection. Under the Re-Use of Public Sector Information 2005 Regulations you are free to use this information for your own use or for the purposes of news reporting. However, any other type of re-use under the Regulations, for example; publication of the information or circulation to the public, will require permission of the copyright owner and may be subject to terms and conditions. For documents where the copyright does not belong to Coventry City Council you will need to apply separately to the copyright holder.

If you wish to apply to reuse the information you have requested or have any other issues relating to this request please do not hesitate to contact me.

Director of City Services and Development
Martin Yardley
Assistant Director
Colin Knight

I hope you feel that our response meets your request. However you have a right to make representations about the outcome or handling of your request – in the first instance this must be made in writing within 40 working days of the date of this letter, to the Council's Information Governance Team at:

Council House, Room 21a
Lower Ground Floor
Earl Street, Coventry.
