Dear

Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

Thank you for requesting information about public health funerals. The Council received your request on 14 July 2014 and has considered it under the above legislation.

Following careful consideration, the information is not being provided as a result of this request, as it falls under the exemption in Section 21 FOIA, which relates to information that is already publicly available or reasonably accessible to the applicant by other means. The information is published and publicly available to view by accessing this link:

Please note, under the Re-Use of Public Sector Information 2005 Regulations you are free to use this information for your own use or for the purposes of news reporting.

However, any other type of re-use under the Regulations, for example; publication of the information or circulation to the public, will require permission of the copyright owner and may be subject to terms and conditions. For documents where the copyright does not belong to Coventry City Council you will need to apply separately to the copyright holder.

If you wish to apply to reuse the information you have requested please do not hesitate to contact me.

If you are unhappy with the outcome or handling of your request, you should write to us (at the address below) within 40 working days of the date of this letter.
