Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

Thank you for requesting information about Business Rates. The Council received your request on 10th October 2014 and has considered it under the above legislation.

You have requested the following information:

'I would like to request an up to date list of companies and charities that have recently took over a new business property in your council area (or just that have become liable for the business rates) from the 28th September 2014 to the 15th October 2014. Could you please provide the business name, address, type of premises and the date they became responsible for it please.'

The information you requested has not been provided as it falls under the exemption in Section 21 FOIA, which relates to information reasonably accessible by other means/information already publicly available in another form or format.

The information is published and publicly available to view by accessing the web address overleaf:

http://www.coventry.gov.uk/downloads/download/3336/non_domestic_rates_foi_report-new_liability_accounts

In regards to October business rates the information you requested is being withheld as it falls under the exemption in Section 22 of the FOIA, which relates to Information Intended for Future Publication or information available in another form or format.

The Council intends to publish this information on 1st November 2014 and it is deemed on this occasion that the public interest in disclosure is outweighed by the public interest in withholding the requested information until that time.

The requested information can be viewed after the 1st November 2014 by going to:

http://www.coventry.gov.uk/downloads/download/3336/non_domestic_rates_foi_report-new_liability_accounts

Please note, under the Re-Use of Public Sector Information 2005 Regulations you are free to use this information for your own use or for the purposes of news reporting. However, any other type of re-use under the Regulations, for example; publication of the information or circulation to the public, will require permission of the copyright owner and may be subject to terms and conditions.

For documents where the copyright does not belong to Coventry City Council you will need to apply separately to the copyright holder.

If you wish to apply to reuse the information you have requested or have any other issues relating to this request please do not hesitate to contact me.

If you are unhappy with the outcome or handling of your request you should write to us within 40 working days of the date of this letter:
