

HACKNEY CARRIAGE DRIVER ROAD KNOWLEDGE INFORMATION DOCUMENT 045

INTRODUCTION

A road knowledge test has to be undertaken and passed by all hackney carriage driver applicants prior to obtaining a hackney carriage licence and by currently licensed private hire drivers wanting an additional hackney carriage driver's licence.

Information on the road knowledge test and how it is conducted is contained within the "Driver Information Document 044", available from the Taxi Licensing Office. You are advised to read it before you start studying for or booking the road knowledge test.

While every care has been taken in the preparation of this document and information contained within it we can accept no responsibility for errors. If you have any comments about this document or believe parts to be inaccurate, we would appreciate hearing from you.

The following is not a complete list of all the roads or places that may be covered in the road knowledge test and is intended as a guide only. Applicants should have a good working knowledge of, at least, the following information.

- All roads within the ring road, including one-way streets, bus only routes, no entry, no right turn, and other restrictions of road use.
- Ring road junctions and direction signs for the junctions, e.g. Junction 3 A4600 Leicester, Walsgrave, Binley (although you are not required to give the precise junction number).

- The locations of Schools and Colleges, in and around Coventry, including the special schools which use taxis for their students with special needs.
- Popular places of interest, in and around Coventry e.g. pubs, clubs, visitor sites, and popular places of entertainment.
- Any other places, in and around Coventry, that a passenger may be likely to request e.g. hospitals, health centres, railway stations, bus stations etc.

LOCAL TOWNS AND VILLAGES OUTSIDE COVENTRY.

Every driver may be requested to travel to places located outside the Coventry City Boundary. Listed below are some of the more popular requests, however a passenger can request a driver to take them anywhere. Therefore all drivers should have a knowledge of some of the more popular places requested. Drivers must also have a Local Map book covering areas such as local villages, Warwickshire, and Birmingham, a map covering the whole UK is also suggested as this shows motorways and major roads. Drivers must also be familiar with how to read and use a map.
