

Duncan Mills

Duncan has been the CEO of Peterborough Diocese Education Trust (PDET) since January 2018. Previously, he has worked as the Managing Director of another academy trust and as Strategic Planning Manager for Education in Northamptonshire.

He has a background in schools and education, starting as a teacher, he has experienced all levels of work in schools including the role of Director for an Education Action Zone and Excellence Cluster. He has also worked as an Education Advisor and in Youth and Adult training.