

Essential CPD for RE Subject Leaders and Teachers of RE

There have been three important national shifts in thinking around the way RE is taught:

- A Worldviews Approach to Teaching RE
- Multi-Disciplinary RE
- The Ofsted Report on RE

Recent training has focused on these important developments. It is important that all RE leads and teachers of RE are aware of these shifts in thinking. These approaches will form the bedrock of our new agreed syllabus for RE in September 2024 so starting to develop staff understanding of these approaches now would be very beneficial to you later.

If you have not attended the recent training on the worldviews approach to RE or the session on multi-disciplinary balanced RE, you can now access the following materials:

- Recordings of the CPD sessions
- Presentation slides from the CPD sessions
- Additional resources

Click here to access these materials

Following this training, you may also be interested in additional complementary sessions on the following topics:

- Promoting Good RE in Your School
- Hermeneutics for RE
- Planning a Bespoke RE Unit
- Philosophy and Ethics
- Theologies of Reading
- Two Key Drivers for RE: Encounter and Enquiry

These can be accessed here

Password for all materials: WCRESyllabus2017