PARTNERSHIP

Coventry Safeguarding Children Partnership hosts a forum for all front-line practitioners in Coventry called the 'Safeguarding Together Action Group', also known as the STAG. This forum is held online on a quarterly basis and allows staff and professionals in Coventry to network with other services and people. Each STAG has a specific theme and aims to educate all professionals with new information, legislation, training and guest speakers. To get involved with the STAG please email coventrycscp@coventry.gov.uk

We also have a quarterly e-newsletter to keep professionals up-to-date with new training, emerging issues and useful information. To sign up to our newsletter please click here.

This training package will improve participants knowledge and skills to understand the challenges related to working one-to-one with perpetrators of Domestic Abuse through early identification techniques and working with and managing risk and vulnerability. Participants will have access to a variety of models/intervention/methods to increase engagement and motivation for change; enabling them to be responsive to perpetrators issues, respond earlier to victims needs and support and maintain the safety, well-being and freedom for victims and their children.

The resource will also increase your knowledge about the Pathways to Change options and the Choose to Change programme, a RESPECT accredited Behaviour Change, voluntary programme aimed at standard and medium risk Domestic Abuse. You will find out how we work with the fidelity of the programme, enabling identification of relevant referrals and to know the correct referral procedures and pathways. There will also be a focus on working in an integrated way to ensure that the safety of victim and their family is prioritised and the trainers from the two specialist domestic organisations will provide examples and knowledge of how to work collaboratively and safely.

This session is suitable for:

- ✓ Staff who work directly with children, or parents/carers
- ✓ Front-line practitioners
- ✓ Designated Safeguarding Leads.
